A Celebration of Music, Community, and Creativity

Brookstock was created with a simple but powerful idea: bringing people together through music, art and shared experience.

In its first year, over 500 people came together to enjoy live music, support local artists, and connect with their community in a way that felt authentic, energizing, and memorable. The lineup features local bands, including high school students, plus food trucks, artisans, and more; showcasing all that is great about our community.

We are inviting sponsors to help bring this vision to life. Your support fuels local talent, strengthens community connection, and aligns your brand with an event that people genuinely care about.
